Dangjin Waemok Village Sunrise Festival

The Sunrise Festival celebrates both the end of the past year and the beginning of a new one, with hopes for success as the sun rises. The view, especially from Seongmunsan Mountain, features a romantic glow on the water. Visitors can watch both sunrises and sunsets for over 180 days annually, with peak times in July and January to see the sun rise over Gukhwado Island and the Port of Janggo.

Sudeoksa Temple

Sudeoksa, a key center of Korean Son Buddhism, was founded during the Baekje kingdom (554-597) and revitalized in 1865 by Monk Mangong. Its three-tiered layout follows Deoksung Mountain's slopes, with the Iljumun gate, Joingjeongsa hall, and the Daeungjeon main hall at its spiritual core.

Muryangsa Temple

Muryangsa Temple, founded in late Silla and expanded in the Goryeo Dynasty, was destroyed during the Japanese Invasion of 1592, with some structures later rebuilt. Poet Kim Siseup spent his final years here. Artifacts from the temple include early Goryeo-style items and a portrait of Kim Siseup, making it an important site from the Goryeo era.
